

I hand you paper writing marked Exhibit No. 2. Will you tell us what that is?

This is where it was sold after my grandfather and grandmother died, Uncle Henry bought my mother's and Uncle George's and Uncle Gus's and Aunt Amelia Wisner's share.

I hand you paper writing marked Exhibit No. 3. Will you tell the Court what it is?

When Uncle Henry died, John George Scheel and wife, John Augustus Scheel and wife, my mother and Amelia Wisner and husband conveyed their interests in the property to Catherine Scheel, Fannie Scheel and Uncle Phillip Scheel.

I hand you paper writing marked Exhibit No. 4. Will you tell the Court what that is?

That is the Will of John Augustus Scheel, wherein he left everything to his wife, Emma Scheel.

Did your grandfather and grandmother, Phillip and Catherine Scholl, die without Wills?

Yes.

At the time of their death, what children did they leave?

John George Scheel, whose wife's name is Rosa Scheel; John Augustus Scheel, whose wife's name was Emma Alberta Scheel; Johanna Bettie Boyer, my mother; Amelia Wisner, a daughter, whose husband's name was John Wisner; Henry George Scheel, a son; Ann Catherine Scheel, a daughter; Edward C. Scheel, a son, and Phillip A. Scheel, a son.

When did Henry George Scheel die?

On the 11th of July, 1903, intestate, and at the time of his death he owned a one-fifth interest in this property. At his death his one-fifth interest descended to his brothers and sisters, John Augustus Scheel, John Augustus Scheel, Johanna Bettie Boyer, Amelia M. Wisner, Ann Catherine Scheel, Fannie P. Scheel, Edward C. Scheel, and Phillip A. Scheel. After the death of Henry George Scheel, John George Scheel and wife, John Augustus Scheel and wife, Johanna Bettie Boyer, Amelia M. Wisner and John Wisner, her husband, conveyed their interests that they had acquired from Henry George Scheel, to Ann Catherine Scheel, Fannie P. Scheel and Phillip A. Scheel, said deed being the one I just identified as Exhibit No. 3.

When did Ann Catherine Scheel die?

She died on January 21, 1935, intestate.

What heirs did she leave at the time of her death?

John Augustus Scheel, a brother, whose wife's name was Emma Alberta Scheel; Edward C. Scheel, a brother, unmarried; Phillip A. Scheel, a brother, unmarried; Fannie P. Scheel, a sister, unmarried; Amelia M. Wisner, widow, a sister, Johanna Bettie Boyer, widow, a sister, and the following nieces and nephews, being the children of a deceased brother, John George Scheel, who died May 1, 1934, namely: Bertha Helena Scheel Ramsburg, divorced, who resides at Sykesville, Carroll County, Maryland; Philip Francis Scheel, widower, who resides at New Market; George Henry Scheel, widower, who resides at Mt. Airy, Frederick County; William Augustus Scheel, whose wife's name is Lillian Scheel, and who reside at Mt. Airy; Thomas Francis Scheel, whose wife's name is Nettie Elizabeth Scheel, and who reside at Woodland Beach, Edgewater, Maryland.

When did the next one die?